Other members of the group acquiring the controlling interest include Thomas L. Williams and W. Joseph Williams, Jr., President and Chairman, respectively, of Cincinnati based North American Properties.

The sale of the club was completed on Jan. 19, 2006, and Mr. Castellini assumed control of the Club as its Chief Executive Officer.

In 1963, he graduated from Georgetown University with a degree in economics and after two years as an officer in the U.S. Army he received his MBA from Wharton Graduate School in 1967.

Mr. Castellini is very active in the Cincinnati community. He served as a member of the Board of Trustees for Xavier University as well as Chairman of Xavier's Development Committee, member and Past President of the Cincinnati Business Committee, a member of the Commercial and Commonwealth Clubs of Cincinnati as well as past president of both clubs, member of the Chief Executives Organization and Past President of the Young Presidents' Organization, Cincinnati Chapter. RHP Chase Burns

2024 FIRST-ROUND DRAFT PICK

The Reds drafted RHP Chase Burns (6-4, 215, R/R) out of Wake Forest University with their first selection (2nd overall) of the 2024 first-year player draft.

Burns, 22, was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Pitcher of the Year, a Dick Howser Trophy finalist, a Golden Spikes Award semifinalist, and a Baseball America First Team All-American as a junior in 2024, his lone season with the Demon Deacons. He went 10-1 with a 2.70 ERA and a Division I-best 191 strikeouts (a single-season program record) across 16 starts at Wake Forest.

Prior to his time at Wake Forest, Burns spent his freshman and sophomore seasons at the University of Tennessee. In 2025, he was invited to his first Major League spring training camp.

OF Rece Hinds, who made his Major League debut in July 2024, hit 5 home runs in his first 6 MLB games. Per Elias, he was the first Reds batter ever to go deep in each of his first 2 MLB games, and his 9 extra-base hits through his first 6 games were the most by any Major League player in that span since at least 1900.

2025 NOTES

OPPONENTS

Milwaukee's Pat Murphy was named 2024 National League Manager of the Year in voting of the national chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Murphy received 27 of the possible 30 first-place votes to beat out fellow finalists Carlos Mendoza (New York) and Mike Shildt (San Diego) and become the first skipper in Brewers history to win the award (in either league). He is also the second NL manager in as many years and the eighth since the award was introduced in 1983 to earn the honor in his first full season in a Major League managerial post. Murphy joins Miami's Skip Schumaker (2023), Arizona's Torey Lovullo (2017), Los Angeles' Dave Roberts (2016), Washington's Matt Williams (2014), Florida's Joe Girardi (2006), San Francisco's Dusty Baker (1993), and Houston's Hal Lanier (1986) as the league's only first-time winners. Murphy guided the Brewers to a 93-69 record and a National League Central division title.

HISTORY

SS Elly De La Cruz and RHP Hunter Greene represented the Reds at the 94th MLB All-Star Game at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, marking the first All-Star appearance for both players. It was also the first time Cincinnati sent multiple players to the Midsummer Classic since 2021 (Nick Castellanos and Jesse Winker). At 22 years, 187 days old, De La Cruz became the youngest Reds All-Star since RHP Wayne Simpson (21 years, 224 days) in 1970 and the youngest position player to represent Cincinnati at the Midsummer Classic since C Johnny Bench (21 years, 228 days) in 1969. He led off the 7th inning of the National League's 3-5 loss with a single off Kansas City's Seth Lugo, becoming the third-youngest player to record a hit in an All-Star game in club history (the first ASG was in 1933), trailing only Bench in 1969 and Frank Robinson (21 years, 312 days) in 1957. De La Cruz was also the third-youngest Major League switch hitter to accomplish this feat; St. Louis' Garry Templeton (21 years, 117 days) and Minnesota's Butch Wynegar (21 years, 127 days) each had a hit in the 1977 All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium II in the Bronx borough of New York City. Greene suffered the loss after allowing the game-winning, 2-run home run to Boston's Jarren Duran in the 5th inning, his only inning of work.

REDS BALLPARKS THROUGH THE YEARS

UNION GROUNDS (1869-70)

Union Grounds served as the first home of baseball's original professional team. The park was located near the area now occupied by the Museum Center in the Union Terminal train station. Anchored by a grandstand called "Grand Duchess," the park could seat up to 4,000 fans.

AVENUE GROUNDS (1876-79)

The Reds headed two miles north from Union Grounds to erect Avenue Grounds, which featured a grandstand that could seat up to 3,000 fans. The ballpark was approximately four miles from the heart of the city's population, so horse-drawn streetcars and trains were a popular way to travel to the park.

BANK STREET GROUNDS (1880-83)

The Reds moved closer to the city with the opening of Bank Street Grounds prior to the 1880 season. The ballpark was located on the north side of Bank Street, south of Western Avenue and just west of McLean Avenue, and could seat up to 4,000 fans. Innovative scoreboard features included players' names and out-of-town scores.

LEAGUE PARK (1884-1901)

Originally called American Park (in reference to Cincinnati's membership in the American Association), the park was renamed League Park (in reference to the National League) in 1890. The park featured a covered grandstand with leather-cushioned seats and open seats along the first- and third-base sides.

PALACE OF THE FANS (1902-11)

Following a major fire, the Reds rebuilt the main grandstand of League Park in 1902. Today, baseball historians refer to the updated facility as Palace of the Fans. The park featured an illustrious grandstand with pillars and columns carved by hand, as well as 19 fashion boxes (much like opera boxes) and inexpensive field-level seating.

CROSLEY FIELD (1912-70)

Originally named Redland Field and renamed in 1934, Crosley Field was the first Reds ballpark to feature a double-decked grandstand. The facility, located at the corner of Western Avenue and Findlay Street, was the site of baseball's first night game and hosted Cincinnati's first World Series Championship team.

RIVERFRONT STADIUM/CINERGY FIELD (1970-2002)

The Reds shared Riverfront Stadium/Cinergy Field with the NFL's Bengals until 1999. The multipurpose stadium, which could seat approximately 56,000 fans, was considered state-of-the-art upon its opening in June 1970. The facility hosted five pennant winners and three World Series Championship teams.

GREAT AMERICAN BALL PARK (2003-PRESENT)

On July 7, 2000, Great American Insurance Company, one of the oldest insurance companies in the United States, and the Cincinnati Reds, America's first professional baseball team, joined forces by announcing a 30-year agreement under which the new home of the Reds would be called Great American Ball Park. The facility, with room for more than 42,000 fans, includes a variety of seating and dining options, state-of-the-art sound and scoreboard systems and an array of historical elements scattered throughout. ScorePAD Sports, Inc.'s state-of-the-art STADIUMnet baseball scoring system provides a direct feed to scoreboard operations that includes a variety of in-game, season and career information about each player that can be shown on the scoreboards high above left center field and in right field.

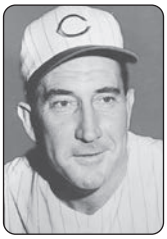
The first black player in the Major Leagues, Jackie Robinson played for the Dodgers from 1947-56. The 6-time All-Star was National League Rookie of the Year in 1947 and NL Most Valuable Player in 1949. In 1997, the 50th anniversary of his debut, every team in baseball retired his number. The last Major League player to wear #42 was Yankees pitcher Mariano Rivera, who retired following the 2013 season.



1 FRED HUTCHINSON

Born: 8/12/1919 Birthplace: Seattle, WA Died: 11/12/1964 Number Retired: 1965

Fred Hutchinson's 443 victories and .544 winning percentage as Reds manager still rank among the club's all-time best. The Reds won at least 90 games in 3 of his 6 seasons and in 1961 took the National League pennant. But the joy of a first-place finish was matched only 3 years later by the sadness of Hutch's death. The courage, class, and determination Fred exemplified all his life were all the more evident during his battle with cancer. Hutch stepped down as Reds manager in 1964, and he died that November. The following year, Hutch's No. 1 became the first uniform jersey number in Reds history to be retired. Today, Fred Hutchinson's legacy lives on in the world-renowned Cancer Research Center that bears his name, and in The Hutch Award. It is given annually to a Major League ballplayer who "best exemplifies the character and fighting spirit of the late Fred Hutchinson...who overcomes any form of adversity." Past Reds winners include Ray Knight, Ron Oester, Eric Davis, Bobby Tolan, Johnny Bench, and Sean Casey.

5 JOHNNY BENCH

Born: 12/7/1947 Birthplace: Oklahoma City, OK Number Retired: 8/11/1984

Cincinnati's uniform No. 5 belongs to perhaps the greatest catcher ever to play in the Major Leagues. Johnny Bench ended his 17-year storied career in 1983 after earning a pair of Most Valuable Player Awards, 10 Gold Gloves, and 14 All-Star Game selections. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989. Bench began his career by winning the 1968 National League Rookie of the Year Award. He ended his career with a .267 batting average and 389 homers, including 327 as a catcher that at the time stood as a record for NL backstops. On the Reds' all-time batting list, Bench ranks first in homers and RBI (1,376), third in extra-base hits (794) and total bases (3,644), fifth in runs scored (1,091) and doubles (381), and sixth in hits (2,048). He appeared in 22 National League Championship Series games and 23 World Series games. Bench earned World Series MVP honors in 1976, when the Reds swept the New York Yankees. He twice led the league in home runs (40 in 1972, 45 in 1970) and 3 times led the NL in RBI (148 in 1970, 125 in 1972, 129 in 1974).

GREAT AMERICAN BALL PARK PLAYER STATUES

The home of the Reds features many visible acknowledgements of the club's rich history. Notable among them are the seven statues of Reds greats positioned near the park's entry gates. The first four statues installed at the ballpark feature players from the Crosley Field era while the others represent three of the legends from the Big Red Machine club of the 1970s. Each of the statues was created by nationally-renowned artist Tom Tsuchiya. In addition to the Reds, Mr. Tsuchiya has produced works of art for Major League Baseball, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and the National Football League.

TOM TSUCHIYA

CROSLEY ERA STATUES

The four statues located at Great American Ball Park's Crosley Terrace main entrance represent four players that a fan vote determined best represented the Reds during the 1912–1970 Crosley Field era. The statues are positioned on a contoured field that evokes Crosley's famous outfield incline which was dubbed "the terrace." The scene depicts Joe Nuxhall pitching to Frank Robinson with Ernie Lombardi serving as Nuxhall's battery mate. Standing on-deck, awaiting his turn at the plate, is Ted Kluszewski. The Kluszewski, Nuxhall and Robinson statues were dedicated during Great American Ball Park's inaugural season in 2003. The Lombardi statue followed in 2004.

Perez' home run sparked the Reds' comeback in the decisive contest that ended with the Reds clinching the first of back-to-back World Championships. The statue is located on Joe Nuxhall Way, near the entrance to the Reds Team Shop. Mounted atop the building directly across the street from the statue is a baseball that appears to be soaring over the building, just as Perez' World Series home run flew over the top of Fenway Park's "Green Monster" in 1975.

PETE ROSE

Dedicated by the Reds Hall of Fame and Museum in 2017

The fourth and final statue in the Big Red Machine series that began with the dedication of the Johnny Bench statue in 2011, the Pete Rose statue was dedicated in 2017 and is adjacent to the Tony Perez statue at the entrance to Great American Ball Park. This tribute to the Cincinnati native and all-time career hits leader depicts Rose in his trademark head first slide. Engineers from GE Aviation were enlisted to construct a special internal frame that allows the statue to accurately depict Rose "in flight."

SEPTEMBER 16, 1988: ONE PERFECT NIGHT

In a 1-0 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers on September 16, 1988, lefthander Tom Browning tossed the only perfect game in Cincinnati Reds history.

It was only the 14th perfect game of 9 innings or more in Major League history, just the third in modern National League history and the first no-hitter by a Reds pitcher since Tom Seaver blanked the Cardinals, 4-0, on June 16, 1978.

Browning's perfect game capped off an incredible season in which he posted an 18-5 record, including a 16-2 mark after June 6.

Halladay allowed only 1 baserunner, a walk to Jay Bruce with 2 outs in the fifth, and threw first-pitch strikes to 25-28 batters.

On 4/21/2016 at Great American Ball Park, Cubs RHP Jake Arrieta threw a no-hitter vs the Reds...prior to that 16-0 loss, the Reds had produced at least 1 hit in 7,109 consecutive regular season games, the longest active streak in the Major Leagues at that time... between no-hitters by Phi's Rick Wise on 6/23/1971 at Riverfront Stadium and Arrieta on 4/21/2016 at GABP, the Reds were held to 1 hit 33 times during the regular season...according to Elias Sports Bureau, the 16 runs scored by the Cubs were the second-most ever produced in a no-hitter...Pud Galvin of the Buffalo Bisons beat the Detroit Wolverines, 18-0, on August 4, 1884.

POSTSEASON

The Reds most recently participated in the playoffs following a 2020 season shortened to 60 games by a global pandemic fueled by the COVID-19 virus, earning 1 of 8 National League playoff spots for their only Postseason berth since 2013. From 2010–2013, the Reds appeared in the Postseason in 3 of 4 seasons, including NL Central Division championships in 2010 and 2012 and a berth in the 2013 Wild Card Game. In club history, that Postseason stretch is matched only by the teams that made 6 playoffs during the Big Red Machine era (1970, '72, '73, '75, '76, '79).

"1919 Black Sox Scandal"

Chicago White Sox Pitcher Eddie Cicotte and outfielder Shoeless Joe Jackson tearfully confessed to a Cook County grand jury that they and third baseman Buck Weaver, center fielder Oscar (Happy) Felsch, first baseman Arnold (Chick) Gandil, utility infielder Fred McMullin, shortstop Charles (Swede) Risberg and pitcher Claude (Lefty) Williams had conspired with known gamblers, allegedly including Arnold Rothstein, to throw the 1919 World Series.

While none of the 8 players were convicted in court, all were banned from the game for life by the first commissioner of baseball, former Federal Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis.

Weaver, who had known about the conspiracy from the beginning, refused to participate and batted .324 in the World Series. He was banned, however, for not exposing his teammates. Jackson, who admitted taking $5,000, batted .375 with a homer and 6 RBI.

Risberg committed 4 errors and batted .080, but did not receive a cent. Gandil - the organizer of the scam - walked away with $30,000 and immediately announced his retirement. Cicotte lost 2 of his 3 starts and earned a $10,000 payday. He later told the jury it was not worth the effort.

Oct. 6 - After 1 batter and 8 pitches, RHP Johnny Cueto left the game with back spasms...was the fewest batters faced by any starting pitcher in a Postseason game in Major League history...the previous record was held by Washington's Curly Odgen, who faced 2 batters in Game 7 of the 1924 World Series vs the New York Giants...RHP Mat Latos pitched in relief (4ip, 1er) for the first time in his Major League career...Brandon Phillips (3h, 1hr, 3rbi) became the third Reds player with at least 3 hits and 3 RBI in a Postseason game since RBI became an official statistic in 1920...Tony Perez did it in Game 2 of the 1975 NLCS vs Pit (3 hits, 3rbi) and Mariano Duncan did it in Game 3 of the 1990 NLCS, also vs. Pittsbugh (3 hits, 4rbi)...Homer Bailey made the second pinch-hitting appearance of his career and struck out vs. Matt Cain...Bailey also pinch hit and struck out on 9/2/09 vs Col.

BASEBALL IN GOODYEAR

In 2010 the Reds moved their spring training and player development operations to the west Phoenix, Arizona suburb of Goodyear.

The club made the move from Sarasota, Florida, where it had trained since 1998.

In addition to the spring training and player development operations, Goodyear serves as the summer home for the Reds' rookie Arizona League affiliate.

Spring training games are played at nearby Goodyear Ballpark, a facility the Reds share with the Cleveland Guardians.

On July 14, 2008 the Reds and the City of Goodyear finalized the terms on a binding use agreement that paved the way for the team to move its spring training facilities there in 2010. The team and city broke ground on November 17, 2008.

The agreement includes a 20-year lease that began in 2010 and two 5-year team options.

The Reds' Player Development Complex on South Wood Boulevard includes a 44,000-square foot clubhouse, 6 full practice fields, 2 half fields and an agility field.

The main ballpark seats more than 10,300 fans, including 500 premium box seats, 8,000 fixed seats and space for 2,000 spectators on a grassy berm in the outfield.

The original plans called for the stadium to be the centerpiece of Ballpark Village, a mixed-use development featuring offices, shops, restaurants, housing, hotels and a conference center.

The Guardians' instructional league team moved to Goodyear in September 2008, while their first Major League spring training camp was held in the new shared facility in February 2009.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL RULES OF INTEREST

Calculating the "Magic Number": Determine the number of games to be played by the team in the lead. Add one to that number. Subtract from that figure the number of games ahead in the loss column from the closest opponent.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply earned runs by nine, then divide total by innings pitched.

Determining Batting Average: Divide total hits by total at-bats.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total number of at-bats.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Divide hits + walks + hit-by-pitch, by at-bats + walks + hit-by-pitch + sacrifice flies.

Determining Fielding Percentage: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

The Winning Pitcher: The starting pitcher will be credited with the win only if the pitcher has pitched at least five complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. EXCEPTION: The "must-pitch-five-complete-innings" rule in respect to the starting pitcher shall be in effect for all games of six or more innings. In a five-inning game, credit the starting pitcher with a game won only if he has pitched at least four complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. When the starting pitcher does not meet the preceding criteria and more than one relief pitcher is used, the victory shall be awarded on the following basis:
(1) When, during the tenure of the starting pitcher, the winning team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game, credit the victory to the relief pitcher judged by the official scorer to have been the most effective.
(2) Whenever the score is tied, the game becomes a new contest insofar as the winning and losing pitcher is concerned.
(3) Once the opposing team assumes the lead, all pitchers who have pitched up to that point are excluded from being credited with the victory except the current pitcher.
(4) The winning relief pitcher shall be the one who is the pitcher of record when his team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game. EXCEPTION: Do not credit a victory to a relief pitcher who is ineffective in a brief appearance, when a succeeding relief pitcher pitches effectively in helping his team maintain the lead. In such cases, credit the succeeding relief pitcher with the victory.

Earning a Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all of the following conditions;
(1) He is the pitcher that finished the game won by his team.
(2) He is not the winning pitcher.
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
b. He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run either already on base or is one of the first two batters he faces), or
c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive game hitting streak shall not be terminated if the player's plate appearance(s) results in a base on balls, hit batter, defensive interference or sac bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sac fly and no hit. Hitting streaks do not carry over from season to season.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from the game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirement of this rule, the streak shall continue.

Rain Delays: Pursuant to Rule 3.10(a), the manager of the home team shall be the sole judge as to whether a game shall be started because of unsuitable weather conditions or the unfit condition of the playing field, except for the second game of a doubleheader. Pursuant to Rule 3.10(c), the umpire in chief shall be the sole judge as to whether and when a game shall be suspended and as to whether and when play will be resumed. An umpire shall not call a game until at least 30 minutes after he has suspended play. He may continue the suspension as long as he believes there is any chance to resume play.

National League Curfew: There is no curfew in the National League. The game is in the hands of the umpires once it has started.

Major League Year: 172 days of service time constitutes a full year in the Major Leagues.

Rookie Status at the Major League Level: To be considered a rookie, a player must not have more than 130 at-bats, or 50 innings-pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the Major League 25-player limit (excluding time in the military).
